

Volunteer Name: _____

Date: _____

Volunteer Toolkit and Resource Scavenger Hunt

We created the CASA Volunteer Toolkit and updated the Prince George's CASA web site to include references and resources in order to help support our volunteers. This exercise will help familiarize volunteers with all of the resources now available to them. After answering each question, list the corresponding source or pdf document where the information can be found.

1. List questions you would ask your CASA child's psychiatrist?

Source: _____

2. When will the third quarter report cards be released in Prince George's County Public Schools for the 2011-2012 School Year? _____

Document Title: _____

3. Child and adolescent psychiatrists recommend that when parents find out their child has stolen, they should:

Document Title: _____

4. In order to better serve youth in care who are pregnant or parenting, what type of parenting support services should be advocated for?

Source: _____

5. Maryland Family Law (Section ____ - ____) requires that: A child must be ____ years or older, be _____, and have no _____ in order to watch a child under 8. Even then certain common sense guidelines should be followed... (List the guidelines here)

Document Title: _____

6. If the family of your CASA child stated that they were having trouble paying their utilities, what number would you give them to call? _____

Document Title: _____

7. What does SMYAL stand for? _____

8. To fulfill their mission, SMYAL concentrates their commitment and energy on five focus areas:(List them here)

Source _____

9. Which is the closest Substance Abuse Treatment Programs (Certified) near 6525 Belcrest Rd, Hyattsville, MD 20782, that does not charge a fee? _____

Source: _____

10. Who is authorized to enroll a child in state care in school?

Document Title: _____

11. What question should you ask everyone that you speak to when gathering information about your CASA child? _____

Source: _____

Completed forms may be faxed to CASA at 301-209-0492 or emailed to pgerber@pgcasa.org